Diversity Meets Science

Award for Theses with Gender and Diversity Perspectives

In order to make the variety of themes related to gender and diversity visible at Thuringian universities and to promote prospective researchers and scientists, the Thüringer Kompetenznetzwerk Gleichstellung is awarding the Diversity Meets Science prize for theses with gender and diversity perspectives¹, which is endowed with 2.000 Euro.

Applications are invited:

- Graduates in all disciplines at Thuringian universities,
- whose final thesis (bachelor, master, diploma, state examination or doctoral thesis) takes a gender/diversity perspective and
- was submitted within the last two years (since August 2022).

Please send a two-page synopsis including the grades and the reviewers' names by 15 December 2024 to:

kontakt@tkg-info.de

¹ Theses with a research focus on gender and sexuality, migration and experience of racism, disability and chronic illness, social origin and class, age, religion and worldview.
